Hi John,

Thanks for your amendment to keep your company information up to date. Here's your attached business license. I think this email link might be where it can be changed: <http://corporations.utah.gov/bric.html>.

The replacement pages you provided will need to match the correct business license, and the MR-REV form that you provided should be signed by an authorized officer of the company.

Also, I tried calling James Sham first since he was the company representative listed in the NOI, and it sounded like that might not be his correct phone. See what you think.

Peter

Correction: The attachment is the list of principals under the current license.
